

TELLER RAPS HARRISON.

A Letter From the Colorado Senator Donounces the President.

DENVER, February 21.—The following letter, written by Henry M. Teller, Senator from Colorado, to a warm, personal and political friend whose name is not given, is the sensation of the day. The Senator has given permission to print it. The fact that the letter was written without expectation that it would ultimately be made public gives greater points to its contents:

UNITED STATES SENATE,
WASHINGTON, (D. C.),
February 11, 1892.

DEAR MR.—: Harrison has never done a thing for the West, and if any man knows of a reason why the people of Colorado should aid in securing his re-nomination I should like to have him tell what it is. I do not believe he has ever said he was in favor of the coinage of the American silver product; I do not believe he would sign such a bill if it passed. I have consulted Allison, Morrell and Sherman and other opponents of free coinage, and they say they will not support free coinage of silver, and Allison, and Sherman said they would rather support free coinage than the free coinage of the American product. They said I might use their names in connection with this matter.

We could not hope to secure a single anti-free coinage man for the free coinage of the American product unless it is Warren of Wyoming, and we would lose the votes of all the Southern silver men and I think all the silver men outside of the silver-producing States. But if the President is favorable to such a bill it cannot pass the House of Representatives and could not even secure a report from the Committee on Coinage in the House.

Talk of the free coinage of the American product is all bosh, and if we do not get the free coinage of all silver we will get nothing. The free coinage of silver would add to the value of Colorado's annual output of silver not less than $8,000,000 per year. We can pass a free coinage bill through Congress, but we know that it cannot become a law while Harrison is President; yet such is the cowardice or party zeal that men who fully recognize the great importance of the silver question abandon it rather than antagonize the proposed nomination of a candidate that they think has the lead in the Presidential race. It cannot be because it is supposed that he is especially strong, for his most ardent supporters admit that he is not as strong as some other candidates. This expression in his favor, in my opinion, arises out of a desire to be with the winning party, and partly, because it is thought that it is not good policy to say anything against a possible candidate.

Yours, etc., H. M. TELLER.

CANNIBALISM.

The doctrine of heredity has long been of interest to students of medical science in particular, and all thinking people in a general way. The instance of youthful cannibalism which recently took place in Georgia can only be attributed to the inherited taste of the little negro for human flesh.

Perhaps four generations back their naked ancestors killed and ate some unfortunate missionary in the wilds of Africa and hankered for more. The taste remained latent all these years to at last develop in the persons of two children, Mark and Lena, aged eleven and nine years.

These little fiends were left by their mother in charge of the nine months old baby. Mark, it seems, soon after the mother left, killed and mangled the baby with an axe; then he took a fork and gouged out the eyes of the little one, which he roasted, and taking a slice of flesh out of either jaw of the dead child, he and his sister sat themselves down and devoured the flesh.

Mrs. French Sheldon, the only white woman who ever traveled through Africa, has returned to New York well satisfied with her trip. She will write a book descriptive of her travels and adventures.

The Gazette and Journal are indulging in a wordy wrangle over the affairs of the Board of Trade.
